INAUGURAL ADDRESS
OF
HENRY E. CHAMBERLIN

January 27, 1920.

In assuming the office of mayor, I am sensible of the honor conferred by the citizens of Concord and also of the responsibility which that honor carries. I am sure that the board of aldermen is equally aware of its responsibility. The importance to the city of a board of aldermen that can consider questions from the standard of the city's interests alone, cannot be overestimated. We have been elected under a non-partisan charter and are expected to conduct the affairs of the city on that line. It will be my endeavor to do my part toward that end and I hope for the co-operation of the board. We are expected to manage municipal affairs on broad, sound business principles, the same as any business is conducted.

As originally intended, an inaugural address was to give in detail a plan of action for the year to follow but it is not my purpose to suggest many new plans. The matters that I shall bring to your attention are only those that from my experience in city affairs seem worthy of your consideration.

We shall be called upon to decide many questions, some old and some new and it is our duty to face the issues squarely and solve the problems presented in the manner that is best suited to the interests of Concord and its citizens. It is not necessary to remind you that in order to keep our tax rate as low as possible, strict economy must be observed in regard to city expenses.

The bonded debt of the city at the present time is as follows:

Municipal debt, made up of city hall, state library and bridge bonds and cemetery trust fund note.....	$219,176.43
Precinct debt, made up of water and sewer bonds	463,000.00
School district bonds.....	184,800.00

The unfunded debt which includes amounts due school districts, outstanding city orders and accrued interest on bonds not yet due is approximately $60,000.

During the coming year we must pay the following bonds:

City Hall.....	$8,000.00
Bridge	4,000.00
Sewer.....	4,000.00
Schools.....	10,500.00

With city expenses increasing as they have in the past few years and as they will no doubt continue to do, it is needless to say that we must expect an increased tax rate in the same proportion. We should remember that all money raised by taxes is not for city expenses alone. The state and county expenses are increasing and consequently our state and county taxes are larger. The balance in the city treasury at the beginning of the present year was one of the smallest ever inherited by any administration. Therefore we should carefully consider our financial condition when acting on the several measures passed on to this board by the last city government.

One feature of the new city charter that has proved to be successful is that one relating to the assessors who are important factors in determining the financial condition of a city. We are fortunate in having a board of assessors who discharge their duties in a wise and impartial manner.

In my judgment it would be well for the heads of all .

departments to make their estimates for the coming year as low as they possibly can without impairing their efficiency and then keep within their appropriations. Estimates should also cover all expenses of the department, including the repair of buildings. In the past seventeen years there has been expended from the appropriations for repairs of buildings and incidentals the sum of $20,902.43 for the fire department and $5,605.08 for the police department. No other departments of the city have done this and I see no reason why money expended on these two departments should not be included in their accounts. In expending the appropriations, a city official makes a mistake when any consideration other than price, quality and service influence him in placing orders. Many dollars have been wasted because of a desire to reward their friends by purchasing supplies. I do not mean that this is common in Concord but there are exceptions and it is the exception that we must guard against. In addition to the department appropriations those for the hospitals, the District Nursing Association and the Charity Organization Society should be continued as they are giving valuable service to this community.

Concord is a city of which we may well be proud. It is well policed, well protected from fire, has a good water supply and is clean and sanitary; it has good streets, many of them lined with beautiful trees, is well lighted and its parks and playgrounds furnish places of recreation for our citizens: our schools, churches and public buildings are such as attract the attention of visitors to our city.

The police force is good and well-equipped. To this department is delegated the protection of the city and the enforcement of the law. The officers should keep their eyes open, not shut to that which is going on about our city and see to it that the law is not violated, treating all with courtesy and doing all in their power to make this city a clean and decent place in which to live. The expenses of this department have doubled in the last dozen years and with no increase in the number of officers excepting two chauffeurs. The expenditures in this department should be reduced to the lowest sum commensurate with efficient service.

For a city of its size, Concord has an up to date fire department. Motor-driven apparatus has proved to be satisfactory and economical and whenever necessary to purchase further equipment it should be of modern type.

Sanitary conditions in Concord are satisfactory and we have had no serious outbreaks of epidemics. However, we are without a hospital for contagious diseases as the old building that has been used as a pest house has been condemned and the land taken over by the state. Some provision should be made for the care of such contagious diseases as cannot be taken at the city hospitals. The District Nursing Association and the Charity Organization Society have given great assistance to the health department by their splendid co-operation.

No great amount of work has been done toward improving the condition of our sewer system since the expert sanitary engineer employed by the city a few years ago made his report. To fully carry out his recommendations would require a considerable expenditure of money and whether our financial condition will allow any large appropriation for sewers should be carefully considered. However, work should be continued on the Beacon street sewer and completed as soon as possible. There has been considerable agitation in the last few years in regard to combining the engineering and highway departments. I should very much doubt either the desirability or advisability of so doing. Furthermore there is sufficient work for the engineering department in determining the lines and putting in proper bounds on many of our streets and country highways as well as a large amount of office work that could be done on maps and plans that are needed by the several city departments to facilitate their work.

The city of Concord has been most fortunate in regard to the management of its highway department and we should remember that building roads is by no means the whole work of this department. The collection of garbage has grown to be of considerable importance, the proper sprinkling of streets under the present day conditions brought about by the automobile traffic and the care of shade trees have increased the work of this department to a large extent. Being supplied with equipment it has been an easy matter to put any work that the city might want done onto the highway department, which has often been a detriment to its efficiency. There are a large number of complaints made to this department that mean much to the individual concerned and when taken in the aggregate are difficult to handle. In complying with such requests it must be taken into consideration that should others ask for the same attention they are entitled to it. Many of these complaints come through the members of the board of public works and to satisfy the member of the board, the person making the request and to keep within the appropriations creates a situation often leading to dissatisfaction and difficulty for the department. It is due to the past careful and wise administration of the highway department and the quiet study of conditions here and in other cities that the highways in Concord today are as good as those of any city in New Hampshire and her reputation for good streets has reached outside New England. Like all cities we suffered for two years during the war from a shortage of labor and government restrictions on road materials and during that time our highways were subjected to a very great increase in motor traffic especially in the line of heavy motor trucking. With the condition in which this has left us and with the constant increase in automobile traffic that we must expect we face a situation in regard to our highways which will require the greatest efficiency and wisdom to meet in a manner that will be at all satisfactory. Fortunately, unlike many cities, no bonds have been issued and we carry no indebtedness for highway construction. The highway department is one of the most important in the city and deserves our thoughtful consideration rather than to be used as a means for paying political debts.

Our public library furnishes the community with excellent reading and is an important adjunct to our school system. The librarian is ready to do all in her power to meet the wishes of its patrons. I consider that the limited expenditures of this department are admirably placed and until the city or some public-spirited citizen shall provide a larger and more suitable library building it will be seriously handicapped in its work. If it were possible to arrange for a reading and reference room in Penacook it would be a great convenience to the teachers and pupils in the schools as well as to other members of the community who are often in need of books of reference.

We have an unusual number of parks in Concord and they are all well cared for. These with the various playgrounds furnish opportunity to all of our citizens to enjoy the great outdoors. Beginning with one, the John Kimball playground, the number has increased to six public playgrounds and there can be no doubt but that they are all doing valuable work with the young people of our city. I believe that better results could be obtained from the money expended if all the playgrounds were placed under one committee who should have charge of all expenditures. Organized work under proper supervision would bring better results to the young people. The committee having the playgrounds in charge might also have supervision of the public bath.

Few cities have as beautiful a spot for the last resting place of loved ones as we are fortunate enough to possess in Blossom Hill cemetery. The splendid appearance of all of our cemeteries testifies to the great interest which those in charge have taken in their work. The fence around the Old North is in a deplorable condition and some step should be taken this year toward making permanent repairs.

While the city government is not directly in charge of our schools, as citizens we are interested in their welfare. The expenses for schools have increased considerably in the last few years but we would not for a moment consider it wise to reduce the expenditures if it were to lower the high standard that the Concord schools have attained.

Nothing has been done on indexing city records since 1903. During the period of the war and since there have been many calls for records and a large amount of valuable time has been spent searching for them. There should be a complete index made of city records in the city clerk's office and more vault room provided. It is a lamentable fact that the vault room in the clerk's office at the old city hall was a third larger than that in the new building.

As city clerk it has been necessary for me to sign resident certificates for returned soldiers and it has been my privilege to meet some nine hundred of the men who have returned to their homes. It should make us all proud to know that our city sent such splendid types of men to represent us in the great struggle and we should erect a suitable memorial, worthy of the name, to commemorate their services in the world war.

In concluding, I ask for the co-operation of the board that we may work in harmony with the one end in view to do the greatest good to the greatest number of our citizens. We have taken an oath to serve them irrespective of party, class or creed and it is our duty to do so. Let us consider every matter that comes before us in a thorough manner and not act upon it until we are sure that we are right. And to quote a former mayor under whom I had the honor to serve, "In discharging the public duties which have been imposed upon us by our fellow-citizens, let us, one and all, ever keep in mind the welfare of this beautiful capital city of one of the grandest states of the best nation the sun has ever shone upon."

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

It is with keen sense of loss and deep regret that we record the death of Mrs. James Minot, a member of the School Board since 1908, and Secretary of the Board since 1914. Mrs. Minot brought to the School Board a well-educated and thoughtful mind, and her faithful attendance at the monthly meetings, her wise and fair judgment, made her services to Union School District of real value.

The operation of the State's new school law and its administration has been helpful to the schools of this District, and has aided us in maintaining an Assistant Superintendent in the person of Mr. Francis T. Clayton, a gentleman of high educational attainments and executive ability. Mr. Clayton has coöperated with Superintendent Rundlett and the Board in carrying out the provisions of the new State school law, in arranging for night schools and in promoting the cause of Americanization among the foreign born.

With an enlarged Union School District, with the problems of securing teachers, with the problems of transportation of pupils from the outlying districts, and the unusual severity of our winter season, increased responsibilities have been placed on Superintendent Rundlett and, with good judgment and efficiency, he has worked out these problems to the satisfaction of the Board.

The high cost of living and the public discussion of salaries paid to teachers throughout the land explains a petition now before the Board for an increase in the salaries of teachers in Union School District for the year 1920 and 1921 of $250 per teacher. A Committee of the Board are, at this time, giving careful consideration to the whole matter, and will undoubtedly make a report, recommending that some increase in the teachers' salaries be made for the year 1920 and 1921. With such probable increase in the teachers' salaries, with the growing cost of transportation and all supplies, the Board realizes the fact that the school budget must be larger than last year; consequently the School Board will be obliged to recommend to the voters of Union School District at the Annual Meeting to be held on April 7th, next, an enlarged appropriation to maintain the schools for the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,

Education throughout the country is seriously affected by the prevailing unrest in other active lines. The expense of maintaining schools is growing constantly because of the increased cost of books, supplies, fuel, labor and other things. There seems to be no way in sight to check the trouble but we think it worth favorable comment if it is curbed even for short periods.

The general tendency of energy in the educational world is toward making our people, of doubtful loyalty to the country, good citizens and the making of good citizens, better. Thought is being forcefully directed toward a course in community civics as a basal one for all grades with educational guidance for its controlling feature. In my last annual report I advised that the entire subject of medical inspection and the general physical training of pupils be placed in the hands of one competent person for intelligent direction and application. I wish to renew the recommendation and urge its pressing need in our schools.

One of the grave concerns of the day is not only securing and retaining competent teachers but rather securing any at all for certain grades. There is a scarcity of teachers caused by the uncertainty of living expense and the unevenness and often the unfairness of the wage scale. When conditions arise so that a teacher who has given a definite part of her life to training for her profession can not command a wage larger than that of the ordinary day laborer, then there will be schools unkept and children uneducated.

The late World War was educational in many different ways but not the least in revealing the importance of strict discipline in school affairs. It has shown us that fine-spun theory can never be realized except as accompanied by effective organization. This means that theory must satisfy practicability and begin to educate from the earth upward instead of from the sky downward. Sound school organization means sound pupil discipline, rational requirements and an able, progressive teaching force. In importance, pupil discipline assumes the first place. Modern ways, especially in secondary schools, seem to be lacking the elevating influence which the schools should be compelled to furnish. If pupils cannot be taught the rules of wholesome living in the schools, they have, generally, a pretty slim chance to learn them outside. The brutality, immorality and disregard of law following in the wake of certain forms of school athletics will demoralize school discipline if left uncorrected, unchecked and concealed as they often are. If we are to teach brutality it should be done in pens with keepers, not in costly buildings with trained teachers.

SUPERVISION.

Under the new educational law our district is numbered eight. This law enables the commissioner to arrange for the supervision of the territory in a way by which the best results may be attained. Cities having a certain number of teachers employed were declared entitled to such assistance in supervision as their individual cases might require. Concord was assigned one assistant. Accordingly the Board of Education elected Mr. Francis Treadway Clayton to the position. Mr. Clayton has devoted his energies to the problem of Americanization, to the High School and to the subject of English as applied in all the different grades. His success in these different fields has been positive and gratifying. By the law, the duties of the superintendents are clearly defined and our work is conducted along these lines. The general effectiveness of school work has been promoted by many teachers' meetings, by extended supervision of rooms, and more careful inspection of the buildings to insure cleanliness and better general care.

A card catalogue of the teaching corps has been installed in the office of the superintendent and also a similar one of the pupils who have graduated or have left school for other reasons. Both are valuable for reference.

Professional meetings of the teachers held under a revised scheme have been productive of good. All the different schools are now represented in this all-important feature of administration.

Unusual efforts involving additional time and money have been made to carry out the State's ideas of Americanization. I commend to you the report of Assistant Superintendent Clayton who has had entire charge of this subject.

A survey of spelling was made by Mr. Clayton in the fall which covered the work of all grades above class B. It took for its basis the survey of the schools of Cleveland, Ohio. The results in our schools although reassuring did not meet the Cleveland standard. Additional surveys will be given at opportune times until the various studies have been reviewed.

PUPIL ATTENDANCE.

The pupil enrollment having decreased for a number of years past has now turned and gains materially. Although the gain is distributed quite evenly over the entire district the intermediate classes show the most congestion. A new school of the lowest primary grade was established in the Penacook building February 2, 1920, to relieve the overcrowding of the Cogswell and the Rumford lowest rooms. This caused the occupancy of the only unused room south of Pleasant street.

The rural schools have gained steadily in enrollment, thus making transportation more intricate and expensive. If these schools continue to grow, thought will have to be given about covering the suburban territory more economically.

The crowding of the High, Parker, and the Chandler schools is so great as to impair the efficiency of the work. An additional room was constructed in the basement of the Parker building to accommodate a large pupil enrollment in the second semester.

TRANSPORTATION.

The amount of money paid out for conveying pupils to the various schools as required by law is one of the large items of our annual school budget. The number of routes installed since the last annual report are as follows:

From East Side to the Parker and the High Schools.

“ West Concord to the Parker and the High Schools.

“ Break O’Day to the Harriet P. Dame School.

“ Broad Cove to the Riverhill School.

“ West Parish to the Garrison School.

This makes a total of fifteen different routes. Not only has the number grown, but also the general expense. The entire subject of carrying pupils is one of great concern, both as to the cost involved and as to the best way in which the entire area may be covered. Appreciation of the conveniences offered is manifested in the absence of fault-finding by the large majority of parents. A small minority fail to recognize the terms of the law as fair because their own ideas are not particularly favored. The largely increased cost of transportation would seem to suggest an early review of the entire question.

HIGH SCHOOLS.

Since September the detail of high school work has been under the supervision of Mr. Clayton, his efforts being given particularly to the subject of English and to elevating the general tone of social life in the school. I have noted marked progress in both. The curricula remain practically unchanged, but the teaching staff has suffered by the loss of valuable instructors. Misses Sargent and Durgin had taught in these schools so long that they became identified as positive factors in its success. We can ill afford to lose such teachers. The following notable events have occurred during the year: The Garden Exhibit in October; the talk of Mr. John S. B. Davie to the class in Economics; the talk to the Girls' Club by Miss Taylor, a former teacher; the presentation to the school of a bronze tablet commemorative of former high school members who served in the late war, by the class of 1919; and a bust of Theodore Roosevelt, by the class of 1920.

The Parker school has shown no abatement in any of those matters that have previously distinguished it as a first-class school. The time here is all employed in legitimate school work with variations of a special nature that strengthen and elevate. The Chandler, Garrison, Walker, and Eastman schools have displayed the usual zeal and have accomplished much meritorious work. The special activities of the Walker school have been marked by the fitting up of a school library, the publication of the Walker School Journal, a work of unusual merit, and many other things of great value to the school, the immediate vicinity and the city.

THE ADJUSTMENT OF THE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL.

Our Junior High School needs readjustment to meet the modern requirements for such schools. The first year lacks the unity necessary for the even, successful prosecution of the work. To insure proper guidance and allow the personality of the teaching corps the most favorable conditions to assert its influence, the two years of Junior High School should be conducted under one roof and under one corps of teachers, thus prolonging the stay of pupils in one building a year additional. The study of pupil character, home conditions, and the fullest application of educational guidance are too important to be cramped for lack of time and school room. Such work as this counts more in the pupil's education than any other one thing and at no other period of his life can it be done to better advantage than in the Junior High School. Our city enjoys the distinction of being practically the first in the country to adopt the Junior High plan which has so gained in favor as to be taken up by the most progressive educational systems as a necessary feature.

Since it began, expansion, organization and specific method have advanced it beyond what we can expect to get with our badly broken first year. I am asking better accommodations for the good of the pupils of the schools and the additional prestige it will give our city in the educational world. I have no doubt but that your usual good judgment will solve this problem correctly.

THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS.

The requirements in these schools vary but little from those of former years. The reading in the grades will compare favorably with that of any other city. It is generally accepted in educational circles that the pupil who has finished the fourth grade should be able to read any ordinary publication understandingly.

A new course of study in which CITIZENSHIP is a prominent feature has been introduced into the first five grades and will be extended onward as time permits. New spelling lists have been provided for classes C, D, E, F, G, H, made up from the standard vocabularies and printed at the Morrill School. A definite list of Minimum Requirements in English has been formulated and put into active practice. We expect it to be productive of the desired results.

DRAWING.

This subject has been conducted as in former years. The usual exhibition at the last of the year was omitted because of the time lost in the preceding fall. The results in the elementary schools were praiseworthy. The elective classes of the high school are discouragingly small but their enthusiasm makes up for lack of numbers. They are particularly interested in the studies that lead up to home decoration. Six pupils under the guidance of the director of drawing made a visit to Boston Museum of Fine Arts and other places of interest with much profit.

MILITARY DRILL.

The place made vacant by the resignation of Lieutenant Coulter has been filled by Captain James J. Quinn, who is making an entire reorganization of the cadet body. The drill period is divided between military drill and setting-up exercises with results positive and lasting. The instructor recommends compulsory military drill for at least one period a week.

MUSIC.

Pupils of the several grades have valuable training in individual sight-singing. Rhythmic problems have been reduced to type-forms to improve this work and pupils are being drilled to measure up to the standard of the ability to sing hymns. The high school chorus is not as large as usual but the glee clubs are better than for many years previous. This is manifested in an aroused interest as shown by a high per cent. of attendance. One day a week or more is taken from the instructor's time for small classes in the domestic arts course. This time would better be spent in perfecting choruses, glee clubs and orchestras which are becoming distinct features in the best school systems. The instructor advises that all pupils be allowed to elect music during the last two years of school.

SCHOOL NURSE.

Miss Flanders asks that a school physician be appointed in the interests of the pupils of our schools. Malnutrition is being studied carefully in clinics, which take up the weighing and the undernourishment of children, to demonstrate to the parents its relation to child health. A

SEWING.

For economic reasons the teaching force of this department was reduced from four instructors to two. The standard of work has been kept up to the mark, the pupils being interested and enthusiastic. Classes I and J receive instruction forty-five minutes a week, instead of one and one-half hours every other week as heretofore, and machine-stitching has been introduced into class L. The progressive curriculum provides for textile study but millinery is elementary owing to the youth of the children. On two days a week classes are held after school hours for senior high school pupils but the interest of the scholars would be better if the time were confined to the regular school hours. The whole subject seems to be scientifically arranged and well taught.

SCHOOL GARDENS.

The promotion of school gardening has become a permanent fixture in public school policy. In this district the results for the past few years have been gratifying. The September exhibitions of pupils' work in the various schools were meritorious but not well-attended by the citizens. Misses Mary Flavin and Stella M. French supervised the work during the summer vacation and the whole subject was broadened and better carried out because of their valued efforts. Steps are now being taken toward a grand central exhibition of this work featured with other appropriate branches in the fall, so that the public may see just what is being done and thus form a correct estimate of its immense value.

COOKING.

The school lunches are conducted as they were last year. The patronage has been better and the expense somewhat relieved by an additional charge for the various units. I believe the cost of maintaining these lunches can be reduced and the service made better. The work of the regular M and N classes is based upon theory and practice, some of the products being used for the school lunches. The efforts of the pupils of classes O and P are wholly devoted to preparing the Parker School lunches. This arrangement could be criticized reasonably for not combining more theory and a greater variety of practice work. Canning and preserving has been done in quantities as shown by the following: $4\frac{1}{2}$ bu. crab-apples; 5 bu. tomatoes; 1 bu. wild grapes.; Samples of this work were sent to the Eastern States Exhibit at Worcester, Mass.

KINDERGARTEN.

There is little to be said about kindergartens that has not appeared in former reports. The attendance has generally increased and a good degree of work maintained. The kindergarten at the Rumford School is too large for an ordinary school room.

TRAINING SCHOOL.

The classes in this school are small, due probably to the lucrative positions offered in the commercial world. The rating of the Dewey Training School for producing teachers of pronounced ability as determined by the superintendents of the state and published by the State Department of Public Instruction was second, Dartmouth College being first. The ranking marks were 100 and 175 respectively.

SCHOOL FOR BACKWARD CHILDREN.

The attendance and accomplishments of this school have been up to the average. As fast as the children manifest a capacity to do grade work they are returned and those who have accomplished all that they are able here, are permitted to seek employment. This institution is efficient and a decided economic factor in our public education.

THE MORRILL SCHOOL OF MECHANIC ARTS.

It is not necessary to rehearse the methods and the aims of this school. It has advanced this year noticeably in discipline, in method and in general administration. The character of the work has never been higher and the boys have never been more interested in it.

The Smith-Hughes requirements have been met in full. The pupils have a fine attitude toward their work and appreciate keenly the advantages given them. In various ways their efforts have been the cause of saving much expense for the district. The equipment is in good shape, the teaching force generally capable and the directive force strong and intelligent. The idea of general economy is admirably carried out.

MACHINE SHOP.

Shop rearranged for large classes. Equipment put in first-class condition. Six drawing tables completely equipped and a ten horse-power motor installed. Projects: bench lathe, bench grinder, gasoline engine, vises, jack-screws, clamps, gauges, small tools, general repair work.

CABINET MAKING.

Room three newly equipped. Projects: library tables, music cabinets, Morris chair, small tables, book-cases, telephone stands, taborets, etc.

CARPENTRY.

Six completely equipped drawing tables installed. New tool-board, sliding blackboard, machinery and equipment overhauled. Projects: stairway, pencil racks, janitor sleds, step-ladders, filing cabinets, exhibition boards, blackboards, book-cases, equipment racks, tables, boxes. Unusual Projects: Sheathing the ceiling of the Garrison Kindergarten room.

PATTERN-MAKING.

A new course of projects laid out. Advanced pupil work on patterns. Design and construction of a complete set of patterns for engine lathe.

ELECTRICAL.

Fine new equipment installed by the students. A twenty-two unit board for teaching processes in electricity. School completely wired for electric lights. The bell system of the Rumford school repaired and extended. Lamps and fixtures installed at the Garrison school.

PRINTING.

FORGING.

A course in practical projects laid out. Some good projects have been turned out.

ELEMENTARY WOOD-WORKING.

The discipline and industry have been excellent. The course has been standardized and improved.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

Basement cleared and storage of lumber systematized. This department is economical and efficient.

NEW EQUIPMENT.

Needed: a small buzz planer and a bench saw.

CONCLUSION.

It is interesting and reassuring to note the change in public opinion regarding the function of the public school. The traditional idea that the final goal of public education is scholarship seems to be disappearing rapidly, giving way to the notion that our schools should be expected to educate the pupil as far as his capacity will admit along the lines of general power and usefulness. To do this will make necessary a full reformation of the school curricula so as to base them all upon those studies the knowledge of which is necessary to gain full power over the usage of the common things to prepare pupils for the wholesome fullness of living. If any one can give me a good reason why the boy or girl studying for admission to college should not be well versed in general handiness, and the usual business customs of life I shall be glad to know it. When I say, therefore, that the schools should be organized for education and not simply scholarship I mean that all our resources should be employed to give the pupil the power and the inclination to benefit his fellow man by making the most of himself through becoming fully rather than specifically educated.

We are painfully aware of the fact that our schools have been severely broken up by loss of teaching time through the unfortunate epidemic of February, accompanied by the worst winter weather we have had for many years. We have been obliged to double up the work in some grades because one additional competent instructor could not be procured. We are also conscious that the general civic, industrial and political unrest injures the public schools to no small degree but with all the worry and black skies caused by world unrest, we still believe that our common schools will continue to be the great barrier to ignorance, vice, and disloyalty and also a tower of strength to the maintenance of our democratic form of government.

I am deeply appreciative of the unvarying courtesy and valuable assistance given me by the Board of Education, the assistant superintendent, and the entire teaching corps.

LOUIS J. RUNDLETT,

Superintendent.

REPORT ON AMERICANIZATION.

FRANCIS T. CLAYTON, Assistant Superintendent.

To Mr. Louis J. Rundlett, Superintendent of Schools,

DEAR SIR:

I am submitting herewith a report on the adult educational activities for the season 1919-1920. At the writing of this report some of these activities are still in progress and will continue until June 10, 1920.

There have been four distinct aspects of this work, namely:

1. Continuation or vocational classes for adults,
2. English classes for the foreign-born,
3. Special day classes for foreign-born women,
4. Social service for foreign-born residents.

The work in adult education began, after a certain amount of publicity had been given to the plans, on October 20, 1919, at Morrill School, and on October 22, 1919, at the Walker School. The general plan contemplated thirty-two periods of two hours each in vocational work and sixty two-hour periods of English work for the foreign-born; the special day classes for women, one two-hour period a week; the social service for foreign-born residents, one period of an hour and a half a week for twelve weeks.

It is perfectly evident from the response made to the courses offered in vocational training that there is a decided demand in Concord for educational opportunities on the part of many adults. The experience of the season closing indicates a decided interest in courses related to industry. This demand should be met by the public school authorities, and more largely supported by the District.

The following courses were given and taught by the teachers named :

Arithmetic for advanced pupils by Mr. Philip Henry Pike.

Arithmetic and Spelling by Mrs. Grace C. Kelley.

Cooking by Miss Myrtle Farrar.

Electricity by Mr. Pike.

Machine Shop Practice by Mr. Raymond Plummer Gilman.

Mechanical Drawing by Mr. Carl Ellsworth Taylor.

Pattern-making by Mr. Herbert Clifton Wilcox.

Sewing by Miss Farrar.

Special Drawing by Mr. Wilcox.

Mr. Roland Guy Hartwell, Principal of the Morrill School, generously gave his services as Principal of the Night School. His unselfish devotion and excellent professional spirit deserve the highest commendation.

The courses in English for the foreign-born were conducted by Mrs. Grace L. Putnam, Mrs. Della I. Lewis, and Mr. F. Lester Trafton. Mr. Trafton also taught the class in Citizenship which was especially designed for those who were interested in taking out their naturalization papers.

During the season a small group of foreign-born women in Fosterville met once a week to be taught by Mrs. Lewis. The work done by this group was centered about the home. The class met in a private house several times and on other occasions in hired rooms. This very promising work was made possible through the untiring interest and zeal of Miss Clara Mitchell, one of Concord's district nurses. It was the aim of Miss Mitchell and Mrs. Lewis to assist the women of this class in solving the actual problems of the home. The acquisition of English was made incidental. The direct attack was made with the women themselves upon their own specific domestic problems. Some of these problems involved the cutting of aprons and blouses, the use of patterns, the making of durable buttonholes, the making of gingham dresses for their girls, and the use of old stockings; the stuffing of the Thanksgiving turkey in American style, the making of cakes and biscuits as American housewives make them; the making of gifts for the children's Christmas and the home Christmas-tree. On one or two occasions the foreign-born women showed the instructor how they cooked certain articles. An effort was made to learn from the women something about their homeland. This was successfully done with several of the Armenian women who could express themselves in good English. The women of this group whose children were too young to be left alone at home brought their children with them. Miss Mitchell made provision for the care of these children while instruction was being given to their mothers.

The fourth form of educational activity began on March 18. This will be continued until June 10. Once a week two citizens serve as counselors under my direction at Parker School. This activity, known as the Citizens' Counsel Service, is designed to assist foreign-born residents in solving their banking, business and legal problems in neighborly counsel with public-spirited citizens.

On February 12th a "Get-together Social" was given at the High School. This was designed especially to bring together the friends and relatives of the men in the English and Citizenship classes of the evening schools. About two hundred people were present of which about one hundred and twenty-five represented the night schools. Pupils of the Senior High School presented a musical program and pupils in Parker, Walker, and Kimball Schools rendered various folk dances. The expense for the refreshments was met by the Rumford Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

It will be observed that several of the adult educational activities were designed to meet the needs of our fellow-residents of foreign birth. But it must not be assumed that these activities alone will bring about the kind of social homogeneousness that the so-called "Americanization" methods are designed to achieve. The problem confronting our community is not one of the first-comers teaching the later-comers something the latter do not know, but rather one of developing mutual respect and a genuine neighborliness in the community. The educational agencies of the community may well direct much of this process, but as a matter of fact the community itself must in all its parts become consciously amenable to the neighborly interchange of the ideals and the human feeling of all of its law-abiding and self-respecting elements. The process involves the socializing of the American-born as much as it does that of the foreign-born.

I should recommend that a much larger appropriation be made available for the season 1920-1921 so that properly qualified teachers may be obtained to intensify certain aspects of the work already undertaken and to develop needed aspects that we were unable to undertake during the season just closing.

Respectfully,

F. T. CLAYTON,

Assistant Superintendent.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF WATER COMMISSIONERS.

CONCORD, N. H., January 1, 1920.

To His Honor the Mayor and the Board of Aldermen:

The Board of Water Commissioners has the honor to submit to your Board and the citizens of Concord the annual report of the condition of the city water-works as reported in the detailed report of the superintendent.

The excellent condition thereof is manifest from the report, and little can be added thereto by us.

Nearly all the shore of Penacook Lake has been purchased and considerable shore land has been acquired during the past year. At the present time there is no risk of pollution of the water from any source. An electrical pump, fully equipped, has been installed with all necessary connections and is in successful operation. This manner of pumping for the high service is more satisfactory than the old system by steam and it can be done at some saving of cost.

For full and detailed facts, see the complete report of the superintendent, herewith returned.

Respectfully submitted,

EXTENSIONS AND IMPROVEMENTS.

There has been laid during the year, 201 feet of 11¼-inch distribution pipe.

Total length of main and distribution pipes now in use, 374,780 feet, equal to 70.98 miles.

Total number of gates now in use, 1,049.

One new hydrant has been set, on north side of Washington Street, opposite Alert hose house.

Total number of hydrants, 458.

There have been laid during the year and connected with the main pipes, 19 service pipes consisting of 425 feet of ¾-inch pipe and 39 feet of 1-inch pipe, and one 6-inch fire connection. There have been discontinued, 19 services; total number at the present time, 3,883; total length of service pipes, 91,902 feet or 17.4 miles.

There have been relaid 48 services and 37 curbs have been placed on old services.

We have set 26 meters during the year; removed, 13; total number now in use, 2,589.

The following table shows the height of water in Penacook Lake on the first day of each month:

January,	181.40	July,	184.75
February,	181.40	August,	183.90
March,	182.10	September,	182.95
April,	184.60	October,	182.75
May,	185.00	November,	182.00
June,	184.80	December,	181.85

The lowest point reached during the year was 181.20, on January 18; the highest was 185.65 on June 14; mean height for the year was 183.32, which was 1.48 feet higher than the mean height for 1918.

The policy of relaying service pipes in streets that were to be rebuilt has been continued this year, and all services in South Main Street from Thorndike to Freight Street and in Warren Street from Fruit to North Spring Street have been relaid where necessary and curb valves installed on all those that were without them.

We have had numerous applications to change the location of service pipes, the owner desiring to enter the property in a different location, and where this has been done, a charge has been made to cover the cost of the change.

There has been no call for extension of mains this year either in old or new streets, and we have had but few leaks on the cement-lined mains that are in service.

It is planned to relay in 1920, 1,200 feet of 6-inch cement-lined pipe on South Street from Bow Street to Bushey's farm with 10-inch cast iron pipe. This line was laid in 1882, and its condition, as shown by leaks during 1919, render the change advisable.

We have nearly 71 miles of main pipes in the system; of these, 11.3 miles, or 16%, are cement-lined. Following is a list showing the amount of cement-lined pipe in use January 1, 1920, with dates of installation:

- 1872. Washington Street, west from Rumford, 501 feet 6-inch pipe.
- 1882. South Street, 1,229 feet 6-inch pipe.
Rumford Street, junction North State and Rumford to Franklin, 3,290 feet 12-inch pipe.
Main from dam at Penacook Lake to junction North State and Rumford, 11,391 feet 18-inch pipe.
- 1885. Giles Street, Warren to School, 772 feet 4-inch pipe.
- 1886. Chestnut Street, Valley to High, 373 feet 6-inch pipe.
Valley Street, High to Chestnut, 879 feet 6-inch pipe.
High Street, Center to Valley, 461 feet 6-inch pipe.
Franklin Street, east from High, 120 feet 6-inch pipe.
- 1887. Main line from Lake Street, West Concord, to Penacook, 13,110 feet 14-inch and 1,221 feet 12-inch pipe.

Mains in Penacook, 17,244 feet of 4-inch, 6-inch, 8-inch and 10-inch pipe.

Rumford Street, from Franklin to School, 2,671 feet 12-inch pipe.

Rumford Street, School to Pleasant, 1,203 feet 10-inch pipe.

This pipe continues to give good service and much of it can in all probability be used for quite a few years yet. The line on Rumford Street from Wyman to School can be discontinued as it is paralleled by an 8-inch pipe to which all hydrants and services can be transferred.

An electrically-driven centrifugal pump built by the Worthington Pump and Machinery Corporation has been installed in the pumping station. This is driven by a 100 H. P., A. C., General Electric motor.

A 20 x 8 Venturi meter was also placed on the force main near the pumping station, and the indicator, recorder and register were placed in the station.

The pump is an 8-inch type "B S" slow speed, horizontally split casing, volute centrifugal pump, and was guaranteed to pump 2,100 gallons per minute against a head of 125 feet and to have an efficiency of 72%, approximately, when operated by a 100 H. P. motor running at a speed of 1,800 R. P. M. The power supplied by the Concord Electric Co. is the alternating current, 2,200 volts, 3 phase, 60 cycle.

The pressure on the suction end of pump when not running is 50 lbs., and on the discharge end 87 lbs. When the pump is started the pressure on the suction drops to about 37 lbs, and rises on the discharge end to 90 lbs., making an average net head pumped against of 122 feet.

The capacity of the pump when running at 1,800 R. P. M. against this head is 2,570 gallons per minute by Venturi meter measurement, and shows an efficiency of 83.9% figuring the motor efficiency at 90% and switchboard at 98%.

The two steam pumps will be kept in good condition and used for emergency work.

All pumping by electricity is done at night at hours regulated by the Concord Electric Co., but in case of fire, or other emergency, the pump may be operated during the daytime.

We have installed a small heater as it was not considered practical to run the large boilers simply to heat the building.

This change from steam to electricity has enabled us to run the plant with but one man, transferring the fireman to inspection work and other duties.

We have done a large amount of work clearing up around the shores of the lake and burning the brush when weather permitted. On account of the small amount of boating and the comparatively few cottages now on the shores, very little of a disagreeable nature was found.

Respectfully submitted,

PERCY R. SANDERS,
Superintendent.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

REPORT OF CHIEF ENGINEER.

To the Board of Aldermen:

In accordance with the requirements of the city ordinance, I herewith submit for your consideration the report of the Fire Department for the year 1919.

The department responded to 45 bell alarms and 242 still alarms.

In addition, two fires occurred, entailing loss, for which no alarms were given, making a total of 289 for the year.

	Bell.	Still.	No alarm.	Total.
Precinet,	17	184	1	202
Penacook,	8	48	56
East Concord,	16	5	1	22
West Concord,	4	5	9
	45	242	2	289

This report will be found to contain statements in detail embracing the amount of expenditures, a complete roll of the department with residence and occupation of each member, a record of all fires and alarms which have occurred during the year and the causes thereof as nearly as could be ascertained, with the names of the owners or occupants and the value, loss, insurance, and insurance recovered in each case.

But one fire entailing heavy loss occurred during the year, that of Colonial and Cummings blocks, September 27.

The apparatus is in good condition.

One motor-driven combination hose and chemical car was added to the equipment.

Further comment or recommendation emanating from this office relative to motor-driven apparatus would be superfluous. Results already attained indicate the policy which should be pursued if economy of maintenance is desired.

Eight hundred feet of hose purchased was balanced by the condemning of the same amount. At least five hundred feet should be purchased during the coming year.

The fire alarm system of the precinct and Penacook are in good condition.

Conditions existing at West Concord should be remedied. During the year a permanent man was added to the manual force of Cataract Company, but no means of summoning call men to his assistance within a reasonable time exist. An alarm system of some kind should be installed without delay.

The duties incumbent upon the undersigned in the line of inspection of wires and buildings have been performed.

During the month of June, I had the pleasure of attending the convention of the International Association of Fire Engineers, held at Kansas City, Mo., a report of which I rendered at that time. I wish again to take occasion to thank your honorable body for the opportunity afforded me to attend.

Respectfully submitted,

W. C. GREEN,
Chief Engineer.

PUBLIC LIBRARY.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY FOR 1919.

To the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of Concord, N. H.:

GENTLEMEN: The city has received under the will of the late Samuel C. Eastman certain stock valued at $1,250, "the income to be used for the purchase of books in foreign languages for the library;" also the sum of $15,500, "for the use of the city library." As the last legacy does not seem to have been given upon any other trust than that it shall be used for the library, the trustees are of the opinion that it should be kept intact for the present for a building fund to be used toward the cost of erecting a suitable library building when it shall be deemed wise to incur that expense. It is hoped that it may be increased from time to time by other gifts and legacies. While the income of the fund may be available for the general expenses of maintaining the library, it would seem to be desirable that it should be added to the principal and thus hasten the time when a new building could be erected.

With this end in view the trustees ask for an appropriation of $7,000 to cover the library expenses for the current year. An examination of the report of the librarian, which is hereto annexed, shows that the cash on hand is $89.33 instead of $290.52 last year, a decrease of $201.19.

To the cash now on hand	$89.33
Add income from trust funds, estimated	542.31
Add fines, estimated	226.00
	<hr/>
	$857.64
Add appropriation asked for	7,000.00
Amount that would be available	$7,857.64

While this appropriation is $1,115 more than it was last year, it should be noted that this year there will be no income from the sale of books, which last year amounted to $225, and that cash on hand is decreased $201.19. These two items amount to $426.19.

The trustees have felt obliged to increase the salaries of the library force about	$766.74
Add the other estimated expenses as per last year	7,096.50
	<hr/>
Total expense	$7,863.24
Deduct total income	7,857.64
Apparent deficit	$5.60

In view of the constantly increasing cost of supplies, it is clear that great economy must be practiced in the use of the money available, even if the desired appropriation is granted. Of course it would be poor economy to curtail the number of books purchased; and no other substantial retrenchment in our expenses is possible, if the usefulness of the library is to be continued.

Respectfully submitted,

REUBEN E. WALKER,
President Board of Trustees.

February 20, 1920.

REPORT OF THE CITY LIBRARIAN FOR 1919.

To the Board of Trustees of the Concord Public Library:

GENTLEMEN: I herewith submit the annual report which should,—

First. Render to you an account of my stewardship.

Second. Make patrons better acquainted with the library's contents and opportunities.

Third. Inform the city government and citizens in general about an institution for which a sum is annually appropriated from the city purse.

Fourth. Enable our library to measure itself, through exchange, with reports from other libraries.

This last point, comparison, will be facilitated if librarians observe uniformity, and the Public Library Commission of New Hampshire, now a live committee with an admirable secretary, has recommended a general form to be filled out yearly; it follows closely that advised by the American Library Association. This schedule specifies such statistics as seem important for the smallest library, leaving it for larger ones, with their more varied activities and separate departments, to elaborate on the skeleton outline. The Commission respectfully suggests that this general form be adopted; I therefore present these statistics:

Number and location of deposit stations maintained (see below).

Besides these figures, there are a few matters of local interest to be mentioned.

The Americanization movement has resulted in increased attendance at the evening school, and Mrs. Della Lewis, one of the devoted teachers there, brought in her class of foreigners for the purpose of making them better acquainted with the library which kept open after time in order that these guests might wander freely about. The twenty-five men seemed interested, but did not accept our offer to let them then and there take out books, their reasons for declining being either that they were not yet sufficiently proficient in reading English or that they were too busy already with the evening school and their daily work. We informed them that we had books in their own languages but did not urge their taking these, as the desideratum is to lead them to read the language of this country.

It would be gratifying, however, if there were throughout Concord more of a call for foreign books, now that Mr. S. C. Eastman left us a bequest to be spent for such, annually. We subscribe for the expensive and beautiful French weekly, L'Illustration, and it is getting a good following; but new novels and works of belles-lettres in French, Spanish and Italian are not called for, and the inference is that those who acclaimed their purchase do not find time to peruse them.

There are reported 5,344 inquirers at the Reference Room during 1919. Some people send their questions to newspapers and wait weeks for their answers to be printed. Why not try first to see if, by means of our different indexes, we cannot furnish the information desired? We have answered twenty-four out-of-town calls from teachers or women wanting material for club papers. Miss Brown is continually setting forth on different tables piles of books suited to the immediate needs of classes. The High School library, in charge of a trained librarian, continues to co-operate with us pleasantly and effectively. The Walker School has installed a small library of its own, and the students read the volumes there and also take them home. While we congratulate these schools on their development along library lines, we would call attention to the fact that it lessens our patronage; but so long as pupils acquire the reading habit and so long as they get pleasure and profit from books, we will not cavil as to which library serves them.

In our purchases we aim at a collection of permanent value, while meeting the demand for new literature in every line. Moreover, we provide a liberal number of novels, though Gibson's Subscription Library relieves us of much of the unappeasable call for the best sellers. Of course the high prices of books have curtailed our buying to some extent.

The increased cost of binding also is noteworthy. With buckram, linen, thread and muslin, leather, glue, paper, etc., costing three times as much as three years ago, and with labor growing more and more expensive, we now have to pay forty cents for what once cost only twenty-three, that is, the rebinding of the most ordinary circulating volume. Miss Dennett, Miss Clarke and Miss Chase have acquired a proficiency in mending and repairing which saves many books which otherwise would have been cast away as worn out. Those which are finally discarded we try to place where there is contagious disease, as there they will be much better than no reading.

In regard to periodicals I cannot do better than quote from another report: "The current magazine is becoming one of the problems a library has to contend with. Old ones disappearing, new ones coming, changing name and character, enlarged or contracted in size in the middle of a volume, and worst of all, text spread throughout all the advertising pages, render it almost impossible to bind or shelve magazines, but not to do so would deprive the library of the best reference material. Book growth need not be a very serious trouble, for they wear out, or otherwise become worthless, almost as fast as the new ones are added. But the reference magazines never wear out, and one must provide space for this perennial increment." With our crowded building it is providential that we can leave to the State Library and the Historical Library the keeping of files of government publications, which are estimated to require fifty feet of new shelving a year.

The distributing agency at Penacook continues in its old place but has changed from being in the hands of Mr. Charles H. Sanders to those of Mr. C. A. Parker, the present owner of the store. We have been most fortunate in having had, for the past ten years, the interested and accurate oversight by Mr. Sanders of this branch. For twenty years Mrs. Sarah A. Quimby, of West Concord, has had charge, without remuneration, of the box of story-books sent at intervals to be given out from her home to residents of Ward 3. At East Concord the deposit station is still located at the store which now is run by Mr. W. D. Stearns.

The popularity of books about the war is on the wane and people are turning to other subjects, noticeably to modern European history, English literature, psychic phenomena, poetry, music, art (particularly that of architecture), and to community civics.

Many of the new residents who have settled in Concord because of their federal positions in the department of Americanization, education, highway, forestry, etc., have promptly enrolled themselves among our borrowers, thereby tacitly saying that they know from past experience, in other cities, that public libraries are good things, eager to help the professional man. We value their custom; and in return they will find we put almost no restrictions on the legitimate use of our books.

Through the winter, on Sunday afternoons, besides the regular custodian for those occasions, we are obliged to have a policeman present to quiet thoughtlessly noisy children and vicious gangs of boys. The adults present crave the privilege of reading undisturbed, and they should have it.

The staff has always worked with faithfulness and efficiency and with a desire to be helpful to all alike; exceptionally strong team-work is done as a result of pulling together through so many years. We can scarcely realize the condition, which must seem that of shifting sands, where changes in the personnel occur often; as in the Brooklyn Public Library where in one twelve-month 268 out of 402 assistants left the staff.

Respectfully submitted,

GRACE BLANCHARD,
City Librarian.

REPORT OF THE CITY ENGINEER.

CITY ENGINEER'S OFFICE, CITY HALL,
CONCORD, N. H., December 31, 1919.

To the Board of Aldermen:

GENTLEMEN: The twenty-seventh consecutive report of this department is herewith submitted.

The expenses of the department for the past year were as follows:

Paid engineer and assistants,	$3,657.50
for supplies,	76.25
transportation,	73.89
real estate transfers,	25.95
telephone service,	25.20
express,	1.78
repairs to level,	30.45
convention expenses,	149.88
	<hr/>
Total,	$4,040.90
Appropriation,	$4,325.00
Expended,	4,040.90
	<hr/>
Unexpended balance,	$284.10

SEWERS.

The work done on sewers will be found in detail in the report of this department to the Board of Public Works.

WATER-WORKS.

Two copies of the fire-alarm and hydrant map of the city proper were made and delivered to the superintendent of the works.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Four new prints of the fire-alarm and hydrant map of the city proper were made and turned over to the chief of this department. A new map covering the hydrants in the West Concord district was made and prints of the same furnished the chief engineer.

BUILDING PERMITS.

In company with the chief of the fire department, I have attended hearings on fifty-three petitions.

Two petitions were referred to the Board of Aldermen, one petition was withdrawn by the petitioner at the hearing, two petitions were granted with restrictions and forty-eight were granted as petitioned for.

All petitions have been filed with the city clerk with our action endorsed thereon.

CEMETERIES.

Three plans of block "CC" were made for the superintendent, also block "AA" and three prints of the Kimball lot.

The deed book of Blossom Hill Cemetery has been brought up to date from the deed stubs.

ASSESSORS' MAPS.

The property transfers have been kept up from the returns from the register of deeds office, and lists made for the assessors as soon after April 1 as the March transfers were available.

We have now listed about 4,300 owners of real estate. This number does not cover the number of parcels of lands owned and defined, as many owners have several tracts of land some of which are widely separated.

Map "E," Ward 9, was replotted to a larger scale. Changes in the layout of the Moore land on Hall Street, necessitated the replotting of that portion of the Hall Street map.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Eleven prints were made for the "War Garden" plots, the plots laid out and plans delivered to the mayor.

Two prints of the city were furnished the Census Bureau. These maps had the ward lines shown on them.

A map showing the main road from Bow line to the Boscawen line was made for the police department. This map was delivered to the city marshal.

Plans were made for a proposed comfort station and delivered to the mayor for the use of the committee having this matter in charge.

The sewer plans for the city and Penacook precincts have been corrected to date, showing additions made during the year.

Two sets of plans for a proposed entrance to White Park, at the intersection of High and Center streets, have been made for the park commissioners.

Plans for curbing around the soldiers' monument in Penacook were made, ten sets of prints of same furnished the committee in charge of this work, and batters set for the installation of the stone work.

A map of the city was made for the District Nursing Association for use in their work.

The lines between Concord, Loudon, Canterbury, Boscawen and Webster were perambulated in company with the board of selectmen of these towns, or such portion of said boards as were delegated for this purpose.

We found the bounds mentioned in previous perambulations in good condition.

The line between Concord and Pembroke being the Soucook River, no perambulation is required.

The lines between Concord, Bow and Hopkinton should be perambulated in 1921, to comply with the state laws.

The employees of this department during the past season were Fred W. Lang, principal assistant, Lendall E. Davis, rodmen, whose efficient services in their respective positions are worthy of commendation.

To the mayor and board of aldermen I wish to express my appreciation for their support and co-operation, and to the heads of other departments who have extended courtesies to this department.

Respectfully submitted,

WILL B. HOWE,
City Engineer.

REPORT OF THE CITY ENGINEER.

CONCORD, N. H., December 31, 1919.

To the Board of Public Works:

GENTLEMEN: The ninth annual report to your board showing the work done under the supervision of the engineering department, for your board, is herewith submitted.

SEWERS.

There have been laid during the past season the following amounts of pipe:

239 feet of 10-inch Akron pipe in Princeton Street extension,
324 feet of 10-inch Akron pipe in Stone Street, 114 feet of 6-inch Akron pipe in Curtice Avenue, and 654 feet of 33-inch segmental block sewer in Beacon Street.

Flushing and cleaning the sewers delayed the starting of work in Beacon Street and we were obliged to stop this work earlier than it was intended to, as among the small number employed here, several left for a winter job and the force was reduced below the economical limit for the depth of cutting encountered. We were able to connect the sewer from the Blanchard Street section to the enlarged main in Beacon Street. This should relieve the situation in that district. Work was suspended on Beacon Street at a point about fifty feet westerly from the westerly line of Jackson Street.

The need of promptly completing the Beacon Street line to Rumford Street is well known to your board. It is hoped that labor may be secured early in the coming year to finish this much-needed improvement.

As I have before stated to your board, the desired relief for Rumford, Tremont and Franklin streets can not be fully realized until Rumford Street from Beacon Street to Franklin Street is relaid with a larger main and the Franklin Street line has been enlarged from Rumford Street to a point near Charles Street. When this is done that section of the city will be well provided with sewers of sufficient capacity to amply provide for any growth in that district.

The breaking down of the old cement pipe, laid in 1876, at the junction of South and Clinton streets, caused the flooding of the basement of the store at Broadway and South Street. This break necessitated the relaying of about 175 feet of pipe to replace the old one, which was found to be in very bad condition, and likely to collapse at any time. Some difficulty was experienced in following the old pipe as it did not occupy the location shown on the old plans, made at the time the sewer was originally laid. The relaying of this pipe simplified the layout at this point.

There are several sections of the city in need of larger mains. Among them are Washington Street from a point about fifty feet westerly from North State Street to Pine Street, and the Brook sewer, so called, from Pleasant Street to Allison Street. The last mentioned main serves a large drainage district and is much overloaded.

There has been expended for new work the following amounts:

MISCELLANEOUS.

Detailed plans for an extension of the garage at the city shed lot were made for your board, and batters set for the erection of the same.

A proposed cross-section for the new road at Saint Paul's School was submitted and adopted by your board, blue prints made for your files, the school and the contractor.

Street grades for macadam were set on South Main Street for the street department.

Sidewalk grades were set for new coal-tar walks and for the cement walk opposite the Standard Oil Company's lot.

The usual monthly measurements of coal-tar concrete laid were made, and statements prepared showing the amounts and where laid. These statements were turned over to the department or committee having the work in charge.

In company with one or both of the other members of the committee for locating poles, I have attended to that duty when notified, attended any hearings or meetings of your board when requested, and furnished such information from this department as called for.

For the interest taken by your board in this department and the many courtesies shown it, I wish to express my appreciation.

Respectfully submitted,

WILL B. HOWE,
City Engineer.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

To the Board of Mayor and Aldermen:

Following is the report of the Board of Health for the year ending December 31, 1919.

The first meeting of the board was held February 3, 1919, when a permanent organization was effected with Mayor Charles J. French, ex-officio chairman, Dr. Charles H. Cook, secretary, Dr. Sibley Morrill was the third member.

Charles E. Palmer was sanitary officer. The resignation of Dr. Charles Duncan as milk inspector made it necessary for the board to provide some means for carrying on this work.

After conference with the state officials a satisfactory plan was worked out whereby the sanitary officer is expected to do the field part of the work, including the actual inspection of the milk farms and the collection of samples of milk for examination. The examination of the samples thus secured is made at the State Laboratory of Hygiene.

Attention is called to the unusually small number of cases of contagious disease and the small number of deaths as compared with the year 1918, "the influenza year."

The board held regular monthly meetings on the first Monday of each month, when business of a routine nature was transacted and such special matters as came up were given consideration. In addition to these regular meetings several special meetings were held.

This board wishes to express its hearty endorsement of the campaign against venereal disease which is being so vigorously conducted under the auspices of the United States Public Health Service.

Officers of this service co-operating with state and local boards of health have already made considerable progress in the right direction and are receiving the co-operation of the majority of physicians and health workers in their efforts to stamp out these diseases.

This board requests that all physicians familiarize themselves with the regulations promulgated by the New Hampshire State Board of Health respecting the handling and reporting of contagious diseases.

In an undertaking of such magnitude very little can be accomplished without the helpful and sincere co-operation of all who are concerned in the treatment and care of venereal diseases.

Every health worker should consider himself a missionary with a definite duty to perform, and that duty consists in teaching as many laymen as come within his sphere of influence the real truth concerning the gravity and far-reaching consequences of venereal diseases.

Your attention is called to the fact that the land upon which the detention hospital or pest house is located has been seized by the state for military purposes. The building, which was never very adequate for its purpose, is in a bad state of repair, without water supply and, in short, totally unsuitable for reception and care of patients. It will be necessary in the near future to make some provisions for the handling of such rare cases of smallpox or other pestilential diseases as may occur in the community. The number of cases of disease of this class is small in the aggregate. However, such cases are bound to be encountered from time to time and it is necessary that your board of health be provided with facilities for handling them in such a manner as not only to insure the unfortunate patient the best of care in cheerful and sanitary surroundings but also to protect the balance of the community from all danger of infection. This is a matter of some urgency and should be given early attention. A proper solution of this problem may naturally be expected to involve the expenditure of a considerable sum of money. Such an expenditure is entirely justifiable and in fact seems unavoidable. In this connection and at this point your attention may properly be called to the expenditures of the Health Department. There was appropriated for the current year $3,500 to cover all expenses of the department. Of this sum $2,951.67 was expended. Assuming a population of 22,000 this would be an expense of a little less than 14 cents per capita for all public health activity in this community. An expenditure of twice this amount would be well within the average amount spent by progressive eastern communities for this purpose. This average has in fact been ascertained to be in the vicinity of 50 cents per capita and some of the larger cities spend annually as much as $1.25 to $1.50 per capita in public health work. Of course it is not expected at this time that this community shall be called upon to expend anything like these larger sums for this purpose, although it may eventually be found that several times the amount now spent will be considered a good investment, yielding splendid dividends in terms of public welfare.

The report of the sanitary officer is herewith submitted and made a part of this report. This report contains interesting data with respect to mortality and morbidity as well as considerable detailed information of the activities of the Health Department.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES H. COOK,
SIBLEY G. MORRILL,
Board of Health.

REPORT OF THE SANITARY INSPECTOR.

To the Board of Health:

GENTLEMEN: Herewith is submitted the report of the sanitary officer for the year ending December 31, 1919.

During the past year there were 454 deaths, 239 less than in 1918, when the epidemic of influenza caused the highest death rate in the history of Concord. However, pneumonia has again been the cause of the largest number of deaths, as was the case last year, there being 32 or 13.65 per cent. of the total number excluding the non-resident deaths, 155, and the still-births, 17, this gave a death rate of 12.62. There were 235 deaths at the six public institutions and 219 in the nine wards of the city.

The decrease in contagious disease was very marked during the influenza epidemic. This has continued through the year, as there were only seven cases of measles, the smallest number in several years. In October eight carrier cases of diphtheria were run down and held in quarantine, with the result that only thirteen cases were reported for the month, making a total of twenty-eight for the year.

The campaign against venereal disease has been an important factor in health circles. The advance along this line has exceeded the expectations of the doctors and health officers having charge of the work. The most important phase of this issue was to educate the general public to the ravages caused by venereal disease. Having always been excluded from public health matters it became a tremendous undercurrent, whose destruction was known only when our men were mobilized. There have been several government pictures on this subject shown in Concord under the auspices of this office which cannot help but open the eyes of the people and awaken a desire to help blot out this menace to our nation.

The large majority of doctors have co-operated in this splendid movement with the result that many chronic cases are now under regular treatment.

The privilege of keeping a pig was allowed again this year, it being felt by the board that all possible production of food was necessary during the period of reconstruction. The complaints from noise and general odors were more numerous this year than during the past two years. The use of disinfectants relieved the last complaint but it was found impossible to abate the nuisance caused by noise.

As in all communities we have had the usual number of complaints and nuisances, that were inspected and conditions relieved, the greatest number being from dead animals, odors from pigs, stables and rubbish, unsanitary plumbing, refuse and ashes in yards and general condition of premises. The usual weekly inspection of alley-ways in the rear of the business blocks has kept them free from objectionable rubbish.

Since the resignation of Dr. Duncan as milk inspector I have paid much attention to the Concord milk supply. Upon inspecting all the farms within a radius of twelve miles of Concord I found most of the farms in very good condition but in a few instances it was necessary to have the barns cleaned up and more sanitary methods introduced. My requests have been very cheerfully and willingly complied with. Each month I have collected samples of milk from the various milkmen and taken them to the state laboratory where the State Board of Health has very kindly allowed our milk to be examined. Upon receiving their report of the findings I have in turn reported to each man from whose supply the milk was taken.

The interest and co-operation of all the milkmen has been very gratifying and there has been a splendid improvement in the cleanliness and quality of our milk.

Although there has not been a noticeable increase in the building activities of the city, the plumbing business has again started up. There were sixty-three plumbing permits and ninety-two inspections made.

Long Pond, the water supply, has been inspected at regular intervals and found to be in fine condition. Analysis shows the water to be of the usual excellent quality.

The appropriation for the year was $3,500 and the total expenditures were $2,951.67, leaving a balance of $548.33. The comparative lack of contagious disease in the community and the unusually large stock of fumigation supplies, bought in anticipation of the advance in prices, have made this balance possible. In the care of contagious disease $137.41 was expended. Most cases requiring assistance by this department during quarantine were cared for at the Foster ward, Margaret Pillsbury Hospital.

One hundred and seventy-six dollars was received from milk license fees.

The following tables show in detail the work of the department:

REPORT OF THE CITY SOLICITOR.

CONCORD, N. H., February 9, 1920.

To the Board of Aldermen:

I herewith submit to the board my report relative to legal matters in which the city has been interested during the past year.

Frank E. Tyrrell v. Concord, an action brought for the death of a horse, which the plaintiff alleged was injured by reason of a defective bridge on the Shaker road. The amount claimed was $400, and the case was tried to a jury at the last October term of the Superior Court, resulting in a verdict for the city.

Hobart A. Goodwin v. Concord, an action for highway damages to an automobile. The plaintiff alleged his automobile was damaged at a defective culvert on the South Pembroke road, July 28, 1917. The case was tried to a jury at the last October term and resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff for $550. In behalf of the city I saved exceptions which I am now carrying to the Supreme Court. The case will be argued there at the March term.

Charles A. Towle v. Concord and Mary A. Towle v. Concord were cases brought for personal and property damages growing out of an accident on the Loudon road due to an unrailed bank. Both cases were settled for $121.63, an amount slightly in excess of the exact cost for repairs to the automobile.

Mabel G. Tyrrell v. Concord is an action brought for the death of a horse which was alleged to have gone through a culvert on the Canterbury road. This case was in order for trial at the last October term and I expected to try it, but counsel for the plaintiff stated to the court that his client was ill and could not attend to it, so the case was continued to the April term. The amount claimed is $200.

Irving J. Sargent v. Concord is an action brought for the death of a horse caused by the said horse breaking through a bridge in the Snaptown district. This case also was in order for trial at the October term but was continued to the April term when it will be in order for trial. The amount claimed is $300.

Notice has been served on the city likewise in behalf of Philippe St. Pierre. Suit has not yet been brought in this case.

The case of Annic Ford v. Concord, in which $3,000 is claimed for damages to lands and buildings, will also be in order for trial at the April term.

The state has condemned certain land on the Plains belonging to the city for a camp ground and hearings were had before a commissioner and the city was awarded $135 damages which has been paid.

Respectfully submitted,

ALEXANDER MURCHIE,

Solicitor.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The police signal system, installed several years ago by the New England Telephone Company, is a very unsatisfactory proposition, and should be replaced by a modern, up-to-date system.

The Gamewell system is considered the best, and is in use in all the larger and a great many of the smaller cities of the United States. The Gamewell Company claim that the following fourteen points on police signalling are true:

1. Proper tools are essential in the performance of efficient service.
2. In police work, a signal system is recognized as one of the most important tools.
3. The value of any mechanical aid is dependent upon its reliability.
4. The word 'Gamewell' stands for over 60 years' continuous use.
5. Reputation stands for something.
6. A bad, or unreliable, signal system is a menace, for it imparts a false sense of security.
7. A signal system is the helpmate of the policeman.
8. The system is an aid in rendering efficient service.
9. Inefficiency eventually involves the position of those who tolerate it.
10. In police work, seconds count.
11. To make seconds count, co-operation is necessary.
12. Quick co-operation is made possible with the signal and re-call system.
13. With the re-call the police drag net can be set instantly.

14. Several features comprise a complete signal system."

The old Packard automobile, purchased about four years ago, at a cost of $600, is a thing of the past, and for the last two years has been an expensive proposition. I recommend the purchase of a lighter, five-passenger, six-cylinder car.

CONCLUSION.

In closing, I desire to express my thanks to the members of the honorable city government for their courteous treatment and support. To the officers of the department, I extend my appreciation for their hearty co-operation.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE A. S. KIMBALL,

City Marshal.

GENTLEMEN: Your Committee on the South End Playground respectfully submits the following report for the year ending December 31, 1919.

The attendance for July was 377; for August, 450. A variety of games were arranged by the instructors, the most popular ones being volley ball, croquet, basket ball, baseball and tennis.

HARRY C. BRUNEL,
FREDERICK I. BLACKWOOD,
ELSIE L. JOHNSON,

Committee on Playground.

REPORT OF JOHN KIMBALL PLAYGROUND.

The season at the playground, comprising the months of July and August, was unusually successful. Every afternoon when the supervisors were present, an interested group, numbering from 60 to 130, were to be found busy with their games, their folk-dancing, their sewing or their basketry.

The sewing, under the direct supervision of Miss Jessie Murdock, was very popular. Dresses, aprons, bags and underclothes were made by the girls, and all these useful articles were put into immediate use. Miss Lowe helped in the folk-dancing and games that were so popular with the small girls of the playground. The entire girls' department was in charge of Miss Silsby and the large attendance kept her busy even on the very hot afternoons of July. The vocational work of the playground could be enlarged to great advantage; more and better facilities for the teaching of sewing and basketry; and a re-arrangement of the shelter so that work and play could be carried on at the same time.

The care of the grounds, the supervision of the boys and the custody of the playground property were in charge of Francis O'Brien.

Not so many volunteer workers gave their services as the previous summer. It would be of great assistance to the playground if more people were interested in its welfare. The community playground is well worth the hearty co-operation of every loyal citizen of Concord.

Appropriation,	$500.00
Resolution No. 398,	24.98

Expended,	$524.98

Respectfully submitted,

LUELLA A. DICKERMAN,
R. A. BROWN.

G. L. Harkins, labor on trees,	58.65
	<hr/>	$4,299.69

Owing to the rapid increase in cost of both labor and materials during the past few years we have been unable to do anything in the way of permanent improvements or extensive replacements. In fact our appropriation is barely sufficient to keep the parks in a presentable condition. But it will soon be necessary to make extensive repairs to the fence around the deer enclosure at Rollins Park and better toilet facilities are needed at both Rollins and White parks.

For similar reasons we have not deemed it advisable to undertake the proposed changes at West Garden where the cost will undoubtedly exceed the sum of money received from the Rollins estate for that purpose.

The fence around White Park is still uncompleted, nothing having been done for nearly ten years. The boundary of the park is about 4,600 feet, of which about 1,500 feet has been fenced during the past thirty-five years. We suggest a special appropriation to complete this work on Center, White and Beacon streets, leaving High street until a later time.
